

Successful Defense in Multi-Million Dollar Breach of Warranty Brought by Automotive Manufacturer

July 2004

Successful defense of a multi-million dollar action alleging a breach of warranty brought by a first tier supplier/manufacturer of injection molded automotive parts against a second tier supplier of thermoplastic. In addition to receiving a very favorable result, proprietary client information was protected from disclosure in a federal district court by negotiating an agreement to arbitrate.

AUTHORS/ CONTRIBUTORS

Deanna Swisher

PRACTICE AREAS

Commercial Litigation
