

Maneuvered Through Near-Acquisition of International Company

Was able to maneuver through a very sensitive, potentially disastrous, near-acquisition of an international target company in which the client was receiving personal pressures to acquire from a close associate. Was able to successfully preclude the acquisition and continued the strong inter-personal business relations between both parties.

PRACTICE AREAS

Mergers & Acquisitions, Strategic Transactions & Alliances