

Created First Conservation Easement of Resort Lake

Created the first conservation easement at a well-known Michigan resort lake, protecting the environmental integrity of a substantial waterfront frontage while reducing the client's property tax obligations to less than half. The client also achieved a substantial charitable contribution deduction as a by-product of the strategy.

PRACTICE AREAS

Administrative & Municipal

Estate Planning

Real Estate Law