FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 17, 2010

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. — Foster, Swift, Collins & Smith, P.C. recently launched a Michigan Bankruptcy Blog that provides case law updates from the Bankruptcy Courts for the Western and Eastern Districts of Michigan. The blog can be found at www.michbankruptcyblog.com.

Michigan's bankruptcy courts frequently make decisions that impact debtors, creditors and the trustees who represent bankruptcy estates. Author and attorney Laura J. Garlinghouse created the blog to inform readers about the ever-evolving case law and to discuss new cases that may be helpful to those affected by bankruptcy and those who practice bankruptcy law in Michigan.

Garlinghouse practices with Foster Swift's General Litigation Group focusing on bankruptcy, municipal law and litigation.
