

Overview

For over a century, Michigan's leading corporations, individuals and families have relied on Foster, Swift, Collins & Smith. The firm has earned a reputation for outstanding client service, for a results-minded attitude and for across-the-board legal excellence. We credit this reputation to our adherence to the timeless Midwestern values of integrity, civility, hard work, camaraderie and commitment to our communities.

Clients of all sizes and types, public and private, seek our help. Many establish long-term relationships with the firm that span generations. All find attorneys who are highly regarded for their ability and experience in handling sophisticated transactions and corporate formations, difficult litigation and complex regulatory and municipal issues.

As a 100-plus attorney law firm with a statewide footprint, we provide comprehensive services for businesses, organizations, municipalities, families and individuals throughout Michigan, the nation and beyond, including:

- Administrative, Municipal Law and Public Finance
- Banking, Finance and Real Estate
- Business and Corporate Law, Information Technology and Sports and Entertainment
- Commercial Litigation and Trial Practice, including Construction
- Employment, Labor and Benefits
- General Litigation, Appellate, Family Law-Divorce and Criminal Law
- Health Care
- Trusts and Estates
- Workers' Compensation

Each of our practice groups is comprised of lawyers rated as the best by clients and peers.

Providing comprehensive legal services to businesses, organizations, municipalities, families, and individuals.